ARTICLE VI

Executive Board Member Elections

Elections will be held annually at the beginning of the fall semester. Each Executive Board member shall be elected by majority vote of the band and Board members present at the time of the election. The election will be conducted by the president (or the vice-president in the absence of the president). Elections for the office of president and secretary will be conducted in even years. Elections for the office of vice-president and treasurer will be conducted in odd years. Election of the Symphonic Winds representatives will be conducted by the Symphonic Winds concert band members. Election of the Jackson Swing Orchestra representative will be conducted by the Jackson Swing Orchestra members. In the event of an unexpected vacancy on the executive board, another board member will fill in until such time as an early or regular election can be held. Should a vacancy for Symphonic Winds director occur, the executive board will form a search committee and select candidates for consideration. The Symphonic Winds membership will select among the available concert band candidates. The Swing Orchestra membership will select among available jazz band candidates.

ARTICLE VII Membership, Dues, and Liabilities

Membership in the Jackson Symphonic Winds concert band is open to individuals of high school age or older who demonstrate an ability to proficiently play at least grade 3 music or above, as determined by their section leaders or the conductor. Membership in the Jackson Swing Orchestra will be by Conductor invitation only. All JACB members will pay dues, which shall be collected at the beginning of the semester. Dues shall be $35.00 per year or $20.00 per semester for adult members. High School student members shall pay $15.00 per year, beginning with their second year, or $10.00 per semester, beginning with their 3rd semester. Members of the Executive Board shall not be individually nor personally liable for the debts or obligations of the band. Individual members may not incur debts or obligations for the band without the consent of the Executive Board.

ARTICLE VIII Communications

Communications of all activities of the JACB will be conducted using personal contact, e-mail, social media, or internet website. Only the JACB President, vice-president, or conductors may send out e-mails to the entire JACB membership regarding JACB business. The Executive Board will solicit volunteers to maintain the Facebook page and internet website. If the Facebook or website developers are not the President or Vice-president of the JACB, they must receive approval from the President or Vice-President for any specific updates intended for the JACB membership.

ARTICLE IX Scholarships

The JACB sponsors two scholarships each year for eligible high school student members of the JACB: The J. L. Taylor Scholarship ($100) and the Greg Tillman Memorial Scholarship ($100). To be eligible for a scholarship, the student must submit an application by April 15th of the year in which they are applying and meet the following criteria:

1. The student must be a senior in high school and a member of his/her high school band.
2. The student must be a member of one or both of the Jackson Area Community Bands, Inc. (Jackson Symphonic Winds and/or Jackson Swing Orchestra).
3. The student must be a member of the JACB for at least for two semesters. (The Executive Board may waive this requirement if they see fit.) Some consideration may be given to those who have been members longer; however, longevity will not be a sole criterion for selection.
4. The student must declare an intention to be music major or to continue college music study during his/her freshman year of college.
5. Since the late J. L. Taylor was a trumpet player, priority will be given to trumpet players for the J. L. Taylor Scholarship. Players of other instruments will be considered if no trumpet players are eligible. No particular instrument is given priority for the Greg Tillman Memorial Scholarship.

The JACB Executive Board will review each application and select a recipient for each scholarship. The selection will be based on competence on their musical instrument, consistent attendance at rehearsals and concerts, dedication toward practice and improving their musical ability, and length of membership in the JACB.

ARTICLE X Disciplinary Issues and Suspension/Dismissal

The Executive Board may convene a special meeting for the purpose of discussing disciplinary issues at any time. If a JACB member, including an Executive Board member, shall demonstrate conduct that reflects poorly on the organization, such as, but not limited to, unruly or other inappropriate behavior or profane speech during a rehearsal or concert, any Executive Board Member may ask the individual to cease such conduct, behavior or speech. If the individual should refuse to comply, they may be asked to leave the premises. The Executive Board will discuss the matter as soon as practical. The Executive Board may impose a warning, suspension, or dismissal at their discretion by a simple majority vote. If the individual is suspended or dismissed from the JACB, they shall forfeit all dues paid to the JACB for that year. The individual may petition the Executive Board for membership at the beginning of the following or subsequent semesters. Approval will be solely at the discretion of the Executive Board. If an Executive Board member should become ineffective in the performance of his/her duties, or display conduct unbecoming an Executive Board member, they may be dismissed from the Executive Board only after discussion and a unanimous vote of the other Executive Board members.

ARTICLE XI Dissolution

In the event of the dissolution of this corporation, all assets remaining after the payments of debts and obligations shall be distributed to the Jackson Arts Council.

ARTICLE XII Methods of Amendment

A general JACB meeting for the purpose of amending the By-Laws may be called by the JACB President/Vice-president not more often than once per year. The By-Laws may be amended as a whole or by individual article upon the affirmative vote of a simple majority of those eligible voting JACB members present at the meeting called for that purpose. A copy of the By-Laws and proposed amendments shall be made available to JACB members prior to the meeting by e-mail, social media, website or paper copy. It is not a requirement that all JACB members must have read the proposed amendments prior to the meeting.
